

News: evo News

New car club in London

Marylebone-based club specialising in performance cars launches with 5 iconic drives

12th February 2007

Ferrari 355

A new car club has launched in central London. ClubGT is based in Marylebone and its fleet includes performance classics: Porsche 996 GT3, Lotus Elise Sport 160, Ferrari F355, Honda NSX and Lancia Delta Integrale. It will shortly be adding a Ferrari 550 Maranello, Lamborghini Gallardo and BMW M5 (E39) too.

Membership is £3750 per year (plus a £250 joining fee), for which you can apparently expect to average about 4000 miles over 30 days. The club is also planning trackdays and driver training.

► For more information click here

> MORE NEWS

EVO NEWS

- Pugs at Le Mans
- Peugeot GTI returns
- 9ff targets record
- ClubGT car club
- KTM X-Bow ready
- BMW 130i M Sport LE
- Aston Martin sold

See all evo News

SPY SHOTS

- Ford Focus RS
- BMW M3
- Bombardier 3-wheeler
- Porsche 911 GT2
- Audi's new exotics
- AM V8 Roadster
- Audi TT

See all Spy Shots

EMAIL TO A FRIEND

PRINT THIS

More bite

ADVERTISEMENT

SPORT OFFERS:

Betting - £600 of Free Bets - Sports

Visit England's Northwest - Sports Events