ON SHOW the motors not to miss

WITH companies facing the worst automotive market for more than 50 years you would be forgiven for thinking this year's Motorexpo might be less shiny and bright than previous shows.

But the free event at Canary Wharf will actually see a rise in the number of manufacturers taking part.

This year, the 14th Motorexpo on the Wharf, show exhibitors cover the full range of the automotive spectrum with luxury brands including Aston Martin, Bentley and Porsche displaying alongside the solid dependable German brands of BMW and Mercedes-Benz.

City-friendly marques will also be on show with offerings from Smart and a three-wheeled contraption from Piaggio.

Among the wide range of cars and motorbikes on show at the Motorexpo will be 13 new vehicles making their UK debut.

This list includes the Aprilia RSV4 Factory, two new Aston Martins in the form of the V12 Vantage and DBS Volante, Jaguar's all-new XFR and XKR and the eagerly awaited Mercedes-Benz E-Class.

Land Rover will present its full model line-up for 2010 while BMW has confirmed it will have on display, in an exclusive viewing area, a recently announced new car that has not yet received its full public debut.

McLaren will also have a display at the show, featuring the car which helped to secure Lewis Hamilton's 2008 F1 World Championship, while Cadillac and Corvette will use the London event to showcase the CTS-V and ZR1 respectively, the fastest vehicles that the brands have ever produced.

Other confirmed manufacturers include Hummer, Vespa, Nissan, CLUB GT, Volvo and Saab - which will showcase its 9-3X.

TOP TIP

ALTHOUGH this year's Motorexpo will feature a large number of cars aimed at those looking for some significant horsepower for their hard-earned cash some marques will be displaying practical vehicles.

Scooter manufacturer Piaggio has confirmed that it will unveil its latest edition to the MP3 range of three-wheeled vehicles at the Motorexpo.

The MP3 LT, above, is the first ever scooter above 125cc that can be legally ridden in the UK with a normal car licence - so all drivers can now enjoy the freedom of travelling by scooter. Piaggio will be offering test rides at the Motorexpo.

WIN the chance to drive off in an Aston Martin Vanquish for a weekend

In celebration of the 2009 Canary Wharf London Motorexpo, its organisers in association with CLUBGT – the performance and supercar club – have teamed up with The Wharf to give you the chance to turn a childhood dream into reality – by becoming James Bond and driving away from work in your very own Aston Martin for the weekend. We are offering all visitors to this year's event the opportunity to win an Aston Martin V12 Vanquish for a long hot summer weekend and all for simply taking pictures at the Motorexpo.

Once you have decided on the pictures you wish to enter (a maximum of three entries per person) simply send them via email to: astonmartin@motorexpo.com stating your name, address and contact details.

After judging, our top 10 images will appear in The Wharf on Thursday, June 18, giving readers the chance to vote for their favourite. The winner will then be announced in the following week's paper.

CLUBGT will be positioned within the Marble lobby of One Canada Square for this year's Motorexpo with a display featuring their striking Lamborghini Gallardo. Now well established in the supercar club business, the firm provides exceptional levels of customer service and member satisfaction.

CLUBGT provides access to a garage of superbly maintained, pristine supercars of all ages and takes care of every element of their maintenance, insurance and all costs so that you don't have to.

Annual membership packages start from just £2,500.
